A former Washington state trooper lieutenant was sentenced to 10 years and 10 months in prison Friday.

Kenneth Garrison, 52, pleaded guilty to first degree incest and possession of child pornography on Feb. 4, 2015.

Garrison's February plea was a change to his original plea of not guilty from November 2014.

Garrison was arrested on multiple counts of sex abuse on Jan. 29, 2014, just two days after retiring from the Washington Army National Guard and a month after leaving the Washington State Patrol, according to the Clark County Sheriff's Office.

Garrison must also register as a sex offender.
