- PORT HURON, Mich. —A retired Cincinnati police officer is in a Michigan jail, accused of having more than 500 child porn images in his possession.

Authorities say Robert Glassmeyer was acting suspicious during a routine stop near the Canadian border, prompting a search of his car.

That's when a camera with the images was discovered, authorities said.

Glassmeyer, 61, retired as a sergeant from the Cincinnati police department in November 2013.

He was in court Tuesday morning and was ordered held without bond.
