

Sneed: Investigator in Cook County state's attorney's office indicted in child porn case - Chicago Sun-Times

suntimes.com

Sneed has learned Terry Meagher, 44, a 20-year investigator for the Cook County state's attorney's office, has been indicted by a federal grand jury for manufacturing, producing and transporting child pornography.

Meagher was arraigned Tuesday and released on a $250,000 bond after pleading not guilty. He is represented by attorney Tom Breen.

Sneed reported last May a Cook County investigator had been stripped of his duties pending an FBI child pornography probe after the feds showed up at his home armed with a search warrant to seize computer files.

Word is the feds have been working on the case for more than a year, and the state's attorney's office cooperated fully with the federal investigation, a source said.

Meagher, who is married with children and was not a member of the state's attorney's child porn unit, surrendered voluntarily a few days ago.

© 2014 Sun-Times Media, LLC. All rights reserved. This material may not be copied or distributed without permission. For more information about reprints and permissions, visit www.suntimesreprints.com . To order a reprint of this article, click here .