A former member of the Fairplay Police Department is facing allegations of becoming romantically involved with a teenager back in 2008.

The Colorado Bureau of Investigations announced Marc Ziolkowski's arrest Tuesday.

Ziolkowski is accused of starting a relationship with a Park County teen, first online, then later escalating to a sexual relationship. He was in his 30s at the time. The Park County Sheriff's Office asked the CBI to investigate Ziolkowski last year after receiving information about his alleged involvement with the teen.

The Park County Sheriff's Office, the 11th Judicial District in Colorado, the Pueblo County Sheriff's Office, the Goodland Police Department and the Kansas Bureau of Investigation were also involved in the bureau's investigation.

Ziolkowski was taken into custody Tuesday in Goodland, Kan. He faces charges of sexual assault on a child.

In addition to the Fairplay Police Department, Ziolkowski has also been a member of Colorado State Patrol and worked part-time for the Goodland Police Department. He also spent the last year working at Northwest Kansas Technical College.
