

Man extradited to Memphis to face child porn charges

By Jody Callahan Posted: July 19, 2015 3:42 PM

Posted: July 19, 2015 3:42 PM

commercialappeal.com

2015 Cop Pedophile Rickie Friar

A reserve officer with the Millington Police Department has been extradited back to Memphis to face charges of rape of a child as well as other counts related to child pornography.

Rickie Friar, 69, was booked into the Shelby County Jail on Friday. He is charged with rape of a child, aggravated sexual battery, especially aggravated sexual exploitation of a minor and soliciting sexual exploitation of a minor. He is being held on $1.2 million bond.

Friar, who works as an unpaid reserve officer for Millington, was arrested in Russellville, Ark., last Monday.

According to affidavits, this case broke because Friar apparently left his iPad where a young woman cleaning his house found it. On July 13, Friar's cleaning lady had the 16-year-old helping her out. The teen accidentally knocked the iPad off the table, then reported to the adult that "there are bad things on there and I even know the passcode." It's uncertain how she knew that code, however.

The adult then took a look at the tablet and found child pornography, officials said. She contacted the Shelby County Sheriff's Office, which began an investigation.

Deputies found photos on the tablet showing a 9-year-old girl touching Friar. They also found other photos and videos of a naked Friar with juveniles around him.

Officials later interviewed the 9-year-old, and she told them that Friar molested her on "more than one occasion."

Friar is due in court Monday morning. Friar has no other criminal record in Shelby County.