

Former Delaware County deputy arrested in indecent proposal case

tulsaworld.com

2016 Cop Pedophile Garrick Walker

JAY — A former Delaware County sheriff's deputy accused of propositioning a 13-year-old girl for sex has surrendered to authorities.

Garrick Walker, 25, of Jay, is charged in Delaware County District Court with making a lewd or indecent proposal to a child younger than 16.

Walker was employed with the Sheriff's Office full time from May 1, 2014, until he was fired Jan. 15, county officials said.

A probable cause affidavit dated Jan. 13 alleges that Walker asked the teen several times whether she "would like to experiment with him" and said that "no one would have to know."

The affidavit also alleges that the girl and her sister, who is in the fifth grade, were inappropriately touched.

Garrick told investigators that if he touched the victim inappropriately while tickling her, it was an accident, the affidavit states. He also told investigators that he discussed sex with the teen, telling her "she needed experience," the affidavit alleges.

The Sheriff's Office confirmed that Walker was released from jail Tuesday evening on $20,000 bond.

The Grove Police Department is handling the investigation at the request of the Sheriff's Department, District Attorney Kenny Wright said.