

Honolulu cop caught raping girl, 14, by her mother

BY David Boroff

nydailynews.com

2016 Cop Pedophile Jessie Laconsay

DAILY NEWS A Honolulu police officer was caught raping a friend's 14-year-old daughter by the girl's horrified mother, authorities charge.

Officer Jessie Laconsay, 37, yelled and cried before fleeing in his police car following the June 7 sexual assault, according to a police affidavit.

Authorities caught up with him the following day, finding him parked at a beach on Oahu's North Shore with cuts on his wrists.

As they waited for an ambulance, Officer Laconsay kept saying he was sorry for "letting us down," the affidavit said.

Cops hunt creep who tried to rape woman, 33, in Queens

A serrated knife was found on the floor of the Laconsay's vehicle, the Star Advertiser reported.

(AP)

Officer Laconsay was charged with four counts of first-degree sexual assault and two counts of third-degree sexual assault.

The teen victim told her mother they have had sex before, which Laconsay denied. However, he did admit to the girl's mother that he had sex with the teen twice before, according to court documents obtained by the Star Advertiser.

A grand jury indicted the officer on Wednesday. He was charged with four counts of first-degree sexual assault and two counts of third-degree sexual assault, and is being held on $500,000 bail.

Officer Laconsay was placed on unpaid administrative leave, according to the Star Advertiser.

© Copyright 2016 NYDailyNews.com. All rights reserved.