

Former Homewood councilman, Little League coach arrested on child sex abuse charges

May 22, 2020

Local News

by: Emma Simmons

Posted: May 24, 2019 / 04:23 AM CDT / Updated: May 24, 2019 / 04:23 AM CDT

Dr. Scott Harris talks coronavirus in Alabama, maintaining safety during pandemic

by CBS 42 Digital Team / May 22, 2020

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (WIAT) -- Alabama is taking another major step in the reopening process as Gov. Kay Ivey has loosened more restrictions to allow more businesses and public spaces to reopen.

These changes come as the Alabama Department of Public Health reports a continued increase coronavirus cases statewide. As of Friday afternoon, there were 13,476 confirmed cases of the virus.

Read the Full Article

Birmingham superhero 'President Austin' makes appearance on popular 'Some Good News' web show

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (WIAT) -- A familiar face around Birmingham got his national debut in an online web series highlight good news during the COVID-19 pandemic.

At the start the quarantine, "The Office" actor John Krazinski started hosting a web series called "Some Good News," a news-style show that mixes humor with everyday people's feel-good stories. In the last couple of months, it has racked up more than 2.5 million subscribers with some episodes tallying up to 17 million views.

Read the Full Article

