

Former officer, named La. State Trooper of the Year by group, arrested in child pornography investigation

Chris Finch

MANDEVILLE, La. (WVUE) - A Louisiana State Police trooper was arrested after a child pornography investigation on the Northshore.

Jason Boyet, 41, who was named Trooper of the Year by the Slidell Elks in 2018, was taken in for questioning by state and federal authorities on Wednesday, according to state police.

Boyet has over 20 years of law enforcement experience having been previously employed by the St. Tammany Parish Sheriff's Office and the Georgia State Patrol. He was recognized by the Elks group for taking almost $2 million of narcotics off of the street in 2017.

Investigators raided Boyet's house in Tangipahoa Parish earlier this morning.

He was questioned by police at Troop L headquarters in Mandeville.

The investigation began as special agents developed information of a subject, later identified as Boyet, producing and distributing pornographic images on a web based application.

LSP Trooper Jason Boyet is being questioned in a child pornography investigation. (Source: Facebook |LSP)

Boyet was booked into the Tangipahoa Parish Jail without incident. The investigation remains ongoing with the potential for additional charges.

Boyet has been with LSP since 2006. He has been placed on administrative leave following the arrest with all law enforcement property and gear recovered.

Copyright 2020 WVUE. All rights reserved.