

Former Washington Park police officer charged with misconduct, stalking

2015/06/11

kmov.com

2015 Cop Domestic Violence Stalking Kevin McAfee

Former Washington Park Police Officer Kevin McAfee was charged for official misconduct, stalking and criminal property damage.

WASHINGTON PARK, Ill. (KMOV.com) - Former Washington Park police officer Kevin McAfee, 52, was arrested and charged on Thursday for charges of official misconduct, stalking and two counts of criminal damage to property.

Former Washington Park Police Officer Kevin McAfee was charged for official misconduct, stalking and criminal property damage.

McAfee resigned after an incident in March, where he reportedly stalked his longtime ex-girlfriend while he was on duty as a police officer.

On May 6, McAfee reportedly entered and damaged items within the Washington Park Police Department.

Last Saturday morning, McAfee was reportedly driving under the influence and speeding in Swansea, Illinois. No charges have been filed yet in the DUI case.

McAfee was released after posting bond on Thursday.