2015 Cop Domestic Violence Terry Allen Moore

Radcliff Police Chief Jerry Cross has confirmed that Officer Terry Allen Moore has been arrested for domestic violence and unlawful imprisonment.

Radcliff Police Chief Jerry Cross has confirmed that Officer Terry Allen Moore has been arrested.

Cross says Kentucky State Police made the arrest on August 26, around 5 p.m.

Cross also says the arrest was made at Moore's home in the 3400 block of Thomas Road in Rineyville.

The chief confirms that as of now Moore is still an employee of the Radcliff Police Department.

Moore has been charged with assault in the 2nd degree (domestic violence) and unlawful imprisonment 1st degree.

Cross confirms the victim is Moore's spouse.

Cross says it's unclear if Moore used his service weapon in any form during the incident, and it's also unclear if Moore had been drinking or using drugs.

Moore is in the Hardin County Detention Center and, according to Cross, should be arraigned in the morning at Hardin District Court.
