PINELLAS COUNTY, FL (WFLA) – A Pinellas County Sheriff’s deputy was taken to jail after a domestic dispute situation Friday, according to the PCSO report.

The incident happened around 1 p.m. in Oldsmar. Deputies responded to the domestic dispute call at the house. They found out that off-duty Deputy James Nassiri and his spouse had had a fight. Nassiri’s spouse had minor injuries to her arm, according to PCSO.

Deputy Nassiri was arrested and taken to the Pinellas County jail.

He is charged with one count Battery Domestic Violence.
