Is this how we treat other victims?

If you think prostitutes are exploited by their clients... you should see what the men in charge of 'rescuing' prostitutes do to them... men with guns who get to decide whom to arrest and who will go 'free' for a BJ...

COPS--HARD-ONS--HANDCUFFS AND 'HOOKERS'... a VERY VERY BAD Combination... ESPECIALLY for the 'victims'

Do you think anything changes for the 'victims' when the cops can decide which of their clients to arrest? Especially when prosecutors are prone to claiming that sexual encounters between cops and prostitutes are 'consensual' but paid sexual encounters between the sex workers and their clients are not?
